

Troopers Investigating Shooting- Dover

Dover– The Delaware State Police are investigating a shooting that occurred last evening.

The incident occurred on Thursday, September, 20, 2018, at approximately 7:50 p.m. when Troopers were dispatched to a residence located in the 100 block of S. Governors Boulevard for a report of a shooting.

Further investigation revealed that three males ages 45, 30, and 27, were standing in the driveway at the front of their relatives residence when they were shot at. The 30-year-old male sustained multiple gunshot wounds and was privately transported to a local area hospital. The other two males did not sustain any injuries as a result of this incident.

There were two vehicles parked in the driveway that also sustained damage from the gunshots.

The 30-year-old victim was later transferred to another hospital once he was listed in stable condition.

There is no suspect information at this time.

This incident remains under investigation by the Delaware State Police Criminal Investigations Unit.
